BOERHAVE'S
HOLLAND BITTERS

THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR

DYSPEPSIA,
DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS,
LIVER COMPLAINT,
WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND
FEVER AND AGUE,

And the various affections consequent upon a disordered STOMACH OR LIVER,

Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave: Because of its great success in the most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medical virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

CAUTION.—The great popularity of this delightful remedy has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have given Boerhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince you how infinitely superior it is to all these imitations.

The Restorative of Prof. O. J. Wood for Restoring hair perfectly and permanently, has never yet had a rival, volume after volume might be given from all parts of the world and from the most intelligent to prove that it is a perfect Restorative; but read the circular and you cannot doubt; read also the following.

☞ The Hair.—People have for centuries been afflicted with bald heads and the only remedy, heretofore known, has been those abominable wigs. By a recent discovery of Professor Wood these articles are being fast dispensed with, but a great many persons still patronize them, because they have been so often imposed upon by Hair Tonics of different kinds. To all such persons we earnestly make the request, that they will try once again, for in Wood's Restorative there is no such thing as fail. We know of a lady who was bald, who used the article a short time, and her head is now covered completely with the tiniest and most beautiful curls imaginable. We know of numerous cases where hair was rapidly falling out, which it restored in greater perfection than it ever had been before.

It is also without doubt one of the best articles for keeping the hair in good condition, making it soft and glossy, removing dandruff, and has proved itself the greatest enemy to all the ills that hair is heir to.

It is the duty of every one to improve their personal appearance though some may differ in regard to the ways of doing it; but every one will admit that a beautiful head of hair, either in man or woman, is an object much to be desired, and there are no means that should be left untried to obtain such a consideration.—Woman's Advocate, Phila.

Coshocton, Ohio, Nov. 17, 1856.

O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gents: As I have been engaged in selling your Hair Restorative the last season for one of your local agents (R. M. Hackinson,) and having experienced the beneficial effects of it myself, I would like to obtain an agency for the State of Ohio or some State in the West, should you wish to make such an arrangement, as I am convinced there is nothing equal to it in the United States, for restoring the hair. I have been engaged in the Drug business for several years, and have sold various preparations for the hair, but have found nothing that restores the secretive organs or invigorates the scalp as well as yours, being fully convinced that your restorative is what you represent it to be, I would like to engage in the sale of it, for I am satisfied it must sell. Yours truly,

S. T. STOCKMAN.

Wayland, Mass., Feb. 5, 1857.

PROF. O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gents: Having realized the good effects of your Hair Restorative, I wish to state, that finding my hair growing thin, as well as gray, I was induced from what I read and heard, to try the article prepared by you, to promote its growth and restore its color as it was in youth, both of which it has effected completely. In the operation I have used nearly three bottles.

Yours &c., JAMES FRANCIS.

UNCLE SAM'S SCHOOL.

A PARODY FOR THE SCHOOLS.

Of all the institutions
In the East or in the West,
The glorious institution
Of the School-Room is the best,
There is room for every scholar;
And our banner is unfurled,
With a general invitation
To the people of the world.

Then come along, come along, make no delay;
Come from every dwelling, come from every way.
Bring your slate and books along—don't be a fool,
For Uncle Sam is rich enough to send us all to school.

Come from where the mighty waters
Of the broad St. Lawrence flow,
Come from Florida and Kansas,
Come from Maine and Mexico;
Come, and welcome, to the school-room,
From the wide Atlantic shore
To the golden region where they hear
The old Pacific roar.

Then come along, etc.

We will read and spell and cipher,
Write and think, when thoughts are free,
And in study, with attention,
Carve a noble destiny.
Our motto is "Excelsior;"
And, with our motives true,
We will leave the world the wiser
When we pass our lifetime through.

Then come along, etc.

Our fathers gave us liberty;
But little did they dream
Of the grand result to follow
In this mighty age of stream.
With the march of education
All the world is set on fire,
And we knit our thoughts together
With a telegraphic wire.

Then come along, etc.

While Europe's in commotion,
Her monarchs in a fret,
We are teaching them a lesson
Which they never can forget.
And this they fast are learning,—
Uncle Sam is not a fool;
For the people do the voting,
And the children go to school.

Then come along, etc.

The wise in every nation
Are joining heart and hand,
To spread a love of knowledge
Like of freedom o'er the land;
And Uncle Sam is anxious
That his children all should be
Of the wisest and the bravest,
And most worthy to be free.

Then come along, etc.

Come join our swelling numbers,
And advance with us along;
We will all, in friendly union,
Sing in wisdom's ways a song;
Until every land re-echo them
With the free and joyous call,
"Come ye to the fount of Knowledge,— There's welcome for you all!"

Then come along, etc.

Select Miscellany.

HOW I BECAME JEALOUS.

BY MARY KYLE DALLAS.

When we first moved to the house in which we now reside, I noticed one very disagreeable peculiarity in relation to the adjoining block of houses. They had no back-door yards, and consequently the windows closely overlooked our gardens, which were not very large themselves, though they were pretty. When we first took possession of our new residence, the windows directly opposite ours were closed, and the apartments untenanted. I had scarcely got to rights and fairly settled down, however, before I perceived great renovations and improvements were in progress in these empty rooms. Painting and papering, whitewashing and gilding, scrubbing and window-washing, were the order of the day for a fortnight. And then, after a short respite, white shades were visable at the windows, and I knew the new tenants had moved in. I did hope they were not inquisitive, disagreeable people.

For some time I saw no one but a quiet, common-place young man, with a very shiny head of hair and an immaculate collar and cravat, who appeared now and then at the window, and vanished instantaneously. And I began to flatter myself that we should not be annoyed at all.

One morning—it was a bright, still day, and the atmosphere was very oppressive. I remember it well, for I had arisen with such an uncountable depression of spirits as I had never before experienced, and felt sure something distressing would happen before night.

Well, this morning, as I was running down stairs very early—before any one else was up in the house—I happened to glance out of a window at a stair-head, and there at that part of the house I have mentioned sat a young lady. She was very pretty. Her complexion was extraordinarily clear, and her hair was magnificent. But I declare I never saw such a cold, saucy glance as that which she fixed directly on the window of our room. I did hope Psalter wasn't looking out.

After breakfast Psalter sat down by the door which opened into the garden, to read the paper. And all the time he sat there that impudent thing stared right straight at him without moving an inch. I thought it strange that Psalter didn't observe her. All day the shades were down, but (if you'll believe me) no sooner had the sun set, than there she sat again in the same position trying, as I saw plainly, to make Psalter take notice of her. And the style in which she was dressed—it was ridiculous.

Every day the same thing was repeated; but I purposely avoided saying anything to Psalter, as he had not seen her himself, lest he should look towards her out of curiosity; and then, of course, she would think he was overwhelmed with admiration.

Sister-in-law was quite a near neighbor of ours, and ran in every day; and one afternoon I causually mentioned the circumstance to her as a good joke. Sister-in-law looked very serious.

"You say Psalter has never noticed her?" she said.

"Never once." I replied.

"Well, I must say, Emma," continued she "that is in itself very suspicious—very suspicious indeed!"

"Why, Jane!" I exclaimed, "what can you mean? Suspicious?"

"Reflect one moment, Emma. Would it not have been only natural for Psalter to remark, 'That's a pretty girl,' or, 'We have a new neighbor,' or something of the sort? Instead of which he has preserved total silence on the subject," said sister-in-law, emphasising her remarks with her forefinger.

"He has never seen her," I replied indignantly. "I told you so—"

"Now, Emma, nothing could make me believe that," said Jane; "and I warn you as a sister to watch that window well, or you'll repent it."

I knew it was foolish, but I declare I could not help thinking of what she had said for hours afterwards, and I caught myself looking at the window fifty times a day.

"Where are you going?" I inquired of Psalter, as he left the house one morning just after breakfast was on the table.

He gave me no definite answer, but merely replying that he would be back in five minutes, closed the door and departed.

As I awaited his return, I happened to turn my eyes towards that window.—There sat the woman, but her back was towards me, and on the window-seat beside her lay a hat so like Psalter's. The longer I looked the more convinced I was that I was not mistaken, and yet the idea was so ridiculous, so preposterous, that I felt I should never have husbanded it for one moment had it not been for Jane's suggestions. I drove the thought away, and went into the house; but when Psalter returned, I couldn't help looking at the window—and, oh! dear me! the hat had disappeared.

I cried and scolded myself, and scolded myself and cried all day long. In the afternoon I walked round the block for the purpose of inspecting the building which contained that window It was large, and full of stores, and offices. On the ground floor was a confectionary. I stepped in and bought some oranges, and then inquired of the proprietor, who was a German, "who occupied the next floor?"

"Oh! Mr. Schmit have all de floor," was the reply. "I know not vat you say in dis country—makes many tings which is not true, and der mouth and der head."

What could he mean? A bright thought struck me they were actors, that must be it. "Many tings which is not true—in der mouth, in der head." I had a clue at last; theatrical people are always running off with other people's wives and husbands, and suing for divorces and intriguing generally, and over the world. Can any one think of the reason? Is the secret hidden in the foot-light, or rolled up in the curtain? Or is there something fatal to fidelity in the air of the green-room? Certain it is, that those who personate fictious heroes constant to wives and lady-loves through difficulty, and danger and death; and heroines who would sacrifice everything save virtue, draw few practical lessons from their nightly representations of those virtuous characters. This woman, then, I dreaded, was an actress, who had come to the determination of running away with Psalter.

Oh, that bat! why had I seen it? Three days passed away, and again Psalter went out before breakfarst. I watch the window—I couldn't help it. Oh dear, dear! in fifteen minutes there was the hat standing on the sill again! There was a handkerchief in the hat. The wind was strong, and every now and then the edge fluttered out, farther and farther, until at last it fell quite out of the hat, and floated down upon the grass-plot. I ran and picked it up—it was Psalter's handkerchief, marked with his name. I thought I should faint, at first; and then my spirits rose—I would put on my things and walk straight into that room, where I was now sure he was and had been on the previous morning.—I could easily make a pretext of some sort; no one should know my motive except Psalter. I tied my veil over my face, and muffled myself in my duster, keeping my tears for the time to come. The stairs were public, so I easily ascended to the second floor without being seen. The back door stood ajar. Oh! how I trembled as I peeped in. There sat Psalter, and there sat the lady, but Psalter was being shampooed, and the lady, divinely beautiful as ever, was made of wax! I had been jealous of a block— a hairdresser's sign! I was far more foolish than poor sister-in-law the night we followed Tom to Brooklyn.

Just as I was retreating, one of the establishment emerged rather hastily from the door I was just leaving, and to excuse my presence, I inquired the price of a pair of false mustaches, much to his amazement, and beat a hasty retreat.

To this day I have never mentioned one word of the occurrence to a living soul—not even to Psalter.

From the Milwaukee News.

Woman's Love.

A BEAUTIFUL INCIDENT.

Six years ago, a young man just entering life, under the influence of rum committed a crime against society, was tried in this city, convicted and sent to Waupun, where he served out his time behind the prison bars. Before his trial, a fair girl had promised to link fortunes with him, and cruel was the blow to her. But she loved him. All through the six long years did she wait and wait for the day of his release. With a true woman's heart, she believed him innocent—innocent at least before God, and like the magnet she held on her steady way, her heart pointing ever to the future. Long were the years to him. Slow passed the hours. Seconds were minutes—minutes hours—hours days—days weeks—weeks months—months years, and the years were like ages. Every tolling of the prison bell struck deep to his heart, and every sunset took another thread from his skin. Nor were the hours less weary to her. Hope, that blessed angel, sat beside her day by day, and reposed on her pillow by night. Some there were who laughed at her holy love—a prisoner, miles away. But little mattered it to her. Others might sneer—she remained true to her heart and him. Others might laugh—she wept. Others might point out a man in prison garb, toiling away from morn till night, with but one star to guide him on. She saw but the honest soul that might be saved—or lost—and woman that she was, nerved herself to bear their gibes and jeers. Blessed words came to him in lonely cell—words of love—of hope—of kindness—and stronger grew the heart of him who had truly his better angel watching over his unbroken future. Each word from her lightened the hours as they slowly went by, and larger grew the day on which liberty was to come. Men visited him, and with careless word or speaking eye, threw into his cell a maddening thought on which his soul must feed, and tremblingly shrink to the darkest corner of its living temple. Then a letter from her would dash aside the dark curtains, and beckon him on to the spot of sunshine outside, and beyond his present reach So passed the years. Friends died, and he wept over them. The sin was long since more than atoned for, and at last the little spot of sunshine crept to his cell, and entering by the key-hole of the door, led him forth into the bright rays of liberty. He was conducted to the office of the prison by McGrew, and a citizen's dress in place of a prison suit given unto him, and led into the inner room, where stood she who years before had promised before God to be his. What a meeting! 'Tis not for us to speak of it. On the evening train, the two arrived in this city, and were by one of our divines in this city joined in marriage. We were witness to the ceremony, and never shall forget it. Never forget the eye moistened with tears of happiness, nor the throbbing of the heart that had so long waited and trusted. Saved!! May the future be all the brighter for the dark cloud that so long hung over it, and true friends be ever ready to lend a helping hand. We believe in woman's love—in woman's devotion, the more after knowing the facts above stated. God bless the true heart, wherever found.

POWER OF PRAYER.—A Minister, whose name is not necessary now to give, had a son who was quite a rogue, and withal something of a wag. One day the boy had been guilty of some misdemeanor, for which the father called him to an account, when the following dialogue took place:

"John, you have done wrong and I must punish you."

"Very well, sir, just as you say."

"Then take off your coat."

"Certainly sir."

"Now take off your vest."

"Just as you please, sir."

"Now, my son, it is my duty to flog you."

"Yes sir; but, father, would it not be best first to engage in prayer?"

This was too much for the minister, the waggery of the son completely over came him, so without either prayer or flogging, he dismissed the boy, while he turned away to relieve his risibles.

KNOW NOTHINGISM.—The editor of a Georgia paper heard the following conversation on the re-opening of the slave trade:

"Clem, I'se tell you, if dey gwine to 'deavor to fotch dem 'ported niggers ober dis way, which I hear dey be, dar'll be a fuss in de family sure. 'Spect dey want us to 'sociate wid dem niggers on 'quality. Neber do it, sure."

"Sam, dus you raly tink dey'll fetch dem niggers here."

"For sartin, Clem. I heard massa say dare was five thousand 'ported souf in Carolina, and half ob dem now ready in dis State. I tell you, Clem, if one of dem forin' unnat'alized niggers calc'late to 'sociate wid dis chile, he is a hoin' de wrong patch. Somethin' will hit him like mule kicked him for sartin, and it won't be dat animal eder."

A SURGICAL MONSTROSITY.

The Philadelphia correspondent of the New York Tribune, under date of April 2d, has the following:

"A child seven months old, was recently brought to the Jefferson College Hospital from the western part of the State, having appended to its left cheek a large mass of flesh, somewhat resembling a tumor. This mass grew more rapidly than the child itself. At birth it was no larger than an apple, but when brought here last month it was nearly a foot long. Its surface was neither smooth nor regular, but was divided into several globular masses; while pulsation was distinctly perceptible, regular and interrupted from forty to a hundred beats per minute. It was traversed by a large artery, showing that it was largely supplied with blood. The tumor was connected to the child's cheek by a peculiar caul-like membrane, pierced with holes, and its presence was a source of constant irritation to the child, though supported by the mother's hand. How to remove this huge tumor without destroying the life of the child was the great surgical problem. The parents warned of the danger, were yet extremely anxious to have the frightful parasites taken off.—Dr. Pancoast, under whose charge the patient had been placed, decided that the use of the knife would result in a fatal hemorrpage, and determined to divide the the caul-like membrane by using a French surgical instrument, the ecraseur, which, by forcing down the skin, and bruising the vessels thoroughly before the chain of the instrument cuts through the mass, effectually prevents all serious bleeding. The operation was performed in prssence of an immense assemblage of medical men students and others.

"The child was placed under the influence of ether, when all pulsation in the parasite was observed to cease. The instrument being applied, the chain was rapidly worked until the parts were well compressed, and afteowards very slowly. In fifteen minutes the tumor came away with the instrument, the chain having worked through the connecting membrane, while scarcely a drop of blood followed the removal, and but one small vessel required a ligature. The surface left on the cheek was about two inches square, and the tumor weighed two and a half pounds.—The whole operation was entirely successful, and the child lives, and has fully recovered. But the extraordinary part remains to be told. The tumor thus taken off was found to contain a living child, imperfectly developed it is true, but still a living child. Fingers were seen and a portion of a rudimentary arm. The intestines were well developed, and no doubt was entertained of its being a male child. A body, presumed to be the heart, contained, imperfectly formed, auricles and ventricles. The mesenteric arteries and veins were of large size. The dissecting knife came repeatedly in contact with the osseous matter of a rudimentary skeleton. Fat was found in large quantities everywhere. It was, in fact, a repetition of the Siamese Twins, only less perfectly developed. These results were received with profound astonishment by the crowded audience who witnessed the operation.—The case is said to be unique in the annals of human malformotion."

A Precocious Child.

The old Story of the Fox and Grapes, with a Difference.—A friend related to us this morning a scene in a school-room which we think will do well to publish, and is too good to keep. It is the custom in the schools to read a moral lesson each morning, when the teacher questions the scholars on what has been read. The day our friend visited the school, the lesson was in regard to the taking of fruit and was a sort of narrative, in which it was stated that a teacher had told his class not to touch the fruit which grew in a neighboring orchard, but to wait until it was perfectly ripe, and they should all have a share of it. They all disobeyed the command with the exceptions of one little girl—she alone refrained from touching the fruit.

The first question asked by the teacher was: "Which did right, the little girl, or the others of the class?" The next question asked was—"Why did not the little girl also take fruit?" This appeared to puzzle the class, and for a long time there was no one ready to answer. At length a little fellow at the bottom of the class held up his hand, which was equivalent to saying that he thought he could give the answer. He was told to proceed—when he astonished the teacher and convulsed our friend by exclaiming—"Pleath sir, I geth she wath too little to reath the fruit.

FRIGHTFULLY MYSTERIOUS.—A gentleman sojourning at a fashionable watering hotel, and whose sleeping apartment was next to that of two young ladies, overheard the following conversation one morning: "My dear, I cannot find my bones; and how can I go to breakfast? I shall look as if I had fallen to pieces." "I will lend you my skeleton, dear, if it will fit you." "Oh, thank you—how kind! yes, exactly." Only one young lady appeared at breakfast. What was the condition of the one that lent the skeleton?

THE MILITARY OF OUR STATE.—The election for all commissioned officers throughout the State, except Major Generals, will take place in June next, in the different volunteer companies.—These officers are elected for five years.—The Major Generals, are elected in July following by the commissioned officers.—An oversight existed in the militia law, by which all the Major Generals were cotinued in office for one year succeeding the election of commissioned officers. It being desirable that the terms of the Major Generals and other commissioned officers should be nearly uniformed, an amendment to the law was passed by the Legislature a day or two before the close of the session, providing for the election of the Major Generals in the month following the election of the commissioned officers.

SINGULAR FREAKS.—The well-known Ned Buntline arrived in Troy, N. Y., a few days since, and amused the passengers by his singular conduct. He bought out the orange dealers and maple sugar pedlers on the cars, and divided the things freely among his fellow travellers. On his arrival in Troy he collected a crowd of over a hundred boys and marshalled them about the streets in the vicinity of the depot, to the amusement of the citizens. He made them a patriotic speech, fed them with apples, and gave three cheers for Washington. Ned finally jumped into a carriage, and was seen no more. He afterwards made love to a pretty dutch girl whom he had never seen before, who was tending bar in a lager beer saloon, and insisted upon marrying her immediately, to which she agreed, and the twain were made one flesh.

IRON RAILROAD CARS.—An exchange says that experiments are being made by several eastern Railroad companies with plate or sheet iron as a material for cars. The advantages which are expected to be gained are greater strength with one-half less weight. The cars are to be built of thin strips of iron making a very stiff and very light body. A sixty passenger car of this material will, it is said, weigh not more than 9,000 pounds, while the corresponding portion of an ordinary car now in use weighs from 18 to 19,000 pounds. If this experiment is successful it will effect a great revolution in railroad car building, for a saving of one-half the weight of cars would be an immense advantage.

$50,000 REWARD.—In our advertising columns will be found an advertisement under the foregoing heading, to which we invite the attention of our readers. With the gentleman who offers such great inducements to purchasers of books, we have had some dealings heretofore, and always found him perfectly fair and honorable, and would commend his establishment to those who wish to buy their luck in such chances as he offers. All orders addressed to him will receive prompt attention.

CHANGE.—The last number of the Juniata Sentinel contains the valedictory of Messrs. Laird & Campbell, who for the past two years have had charge of that paper, which now passes into the hands of W. W. Davis. The former editors printed a neat and spirited paper and did good service to the party. May they be successful in all their future enterprises. The new proprietor has our best wishes for his prosperity.

SICKLES ACQUITTED.—The trial of Daniel E. Sickles for the murder of Philip Barton Key, after a continuation of twenty days, was brought to a close on Monday afternoon. At three o'clock the Jury returned and gave a verdict of "Not Guilty." The applause was deafening; the audience huzzaing and waving their hats.

☞ The Johnstown Tribune of last week, takes back the assertion that it was the medicine administered to Mrs. Andrews, who came so near being poisoned, that salivated her, stating, in explanation that it was the poison did the mischief.

BOOK NOTICES.

THE PILLAR OF FIRE; OR, ISRAEL IN BONDAGE. By Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, author of "The Prince of the House of David" New-York: Pudney & Russell. Philadelphia: G. G. EVANS, 439 Chestnut Street.

"The Prince of the House of David" has had a sale unexceeded by any volume of its size and character. In that work the effort was made to illustrate events in the land of Judea, by the letters of a Jewish maiden. In this a young prince of Phenicia is supposed to write from Egypt. The condition of the children of Israel, and the wonders wrought by Moses, from the staple of the work, and as much of Egyptian history and description is introduced as are necessary to complete the picture, and give it fullness and unity. Mr. Ingraham has diligently consulted all accessible authorities upon the antiquities and customs of Egypt, and the volume is the result of long and patient study.—Many difficulties attend an undertaking of such a nature, and justice to the writer requires that the preface and appendix should be read before the text of the work. The object is to promote a knowledge of the Bible, by leading readers to compare and verify, and search for themselves. The material for the volumes, it is proper to say, is drawn from other sources, and the imagination of the writer is employed to fill up, from brief data, a continuous narrative. It is a Phenician and cotemporary view of the scenes and events which we are accustomed to regard from quite a different stand point. It will popularize knowledge upon subjects heretofore restricted to archæologists.

This entrancing and instructive book of 596 pages, bound in excellent style, is sold for $1.25—same price as "The Prince of the House of David."

Evans of Philadelphia, has purchased 10,000 copies of "The Pillar of Fire," and 5,000 of the "Prince of the House of David," and will mail a handsome Gift, with either book, on receipt of the price and twenty-one cents for postage.

A new Classified Catalogue of Standard Books, in every department of Literature, with a new list of Gifts for 1859, has just been issued by Evans, and will be mailed free, on application. Address G. G. EVANS, 439 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.

THE BOOK OF ANECDOTES, AND BUDGET OF FUN.—We have here a neat volume, containing a capital budget of fun, being filled with the most laughable sayings and jokes of celebrated wits and humorists. The publication, too, is well-timed, as the traveling season is about to commence, and we can hardly imagine a work better calculated to amuse leisure, as a reading companion on board a steamboat or a railway car. Merriment, too, is good for the mind. It chases away care and enlivens ennui. In the language of the poet, it is wise to "laugh while you may—be canded when you can."

This mirth-provoking book is sold at the low price of One Dollar. Evans will mail a copy and a handsome present to all persons remitting one dollar for the book, and twenty cents for postage. Address

☞ The Atlantic Monthly for May comes to us from the publishers, Messrs. Phillips, Sampson & Co., of Boston. The opening paper, "The Gymnasium," is a spirited, practical, historical and learned argument in favor of manly exercises. "Why did the Governess faint" is a well told story. "Two Years After" is a really original and very musical poem. "A Bundle of Old Letters" gives a number of interesting familiar letters of the revolutionary times. "In the Pines" is an agreeable narrative of a visit to a well known region in New Jersey.—"The Last Bird" is a well expressed Bryantesque little poem. "The Utah Expedition," "Bulls and Bears" and "The Minister's Wooing" are continued. The Professor is charming as ever at the Breakfast Table. "A Trip to Cuba" is a lively opening report of what promises to be a very good series. The little poem—an Inscription for a Camphor-wood Alms Chest—is graceful and appropriate. "The Walker of the Snow" is a well-written poem, of the old ballad form. In the review department is a second paper on Wilson's Mexico—very caustic on the author, and very earnest as a vindication of Prescott. The other book notices are well done. The number is altogether calculated to sustain the reputation of this Magazine.

☞ Godey's Lady's Book for May has been on our table for a couple of weeks, but while we have neglected noticing it, our better-half has not neglected to examine and admire its contents. Godey's Book never depreciates in interest—in fact it always increases in interest, each succeeding number being more anxiously looked for than the last. Subscribe for it ladies. Terms $3 per annum. We will furnish it for $2,00.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE.—As naturally as we remember and look for our dinner at 12 o'clock every day, do we look for the monthly visits of this excellent Lady's Magazine, and as surely as we expect something good for dinner so surely and often more truly do we get something good in Peterson's Book. There is no humbug about Peterson. Whatever he promises he will perform. Terms of Peterson's Magazine $2 per annum.

FIRE AT WARRIORSMARK.—We learn that a fire occurred in Warriorsmark, on Monday week, which destroyed the dwelling house occupied by John Watson and Isaac Cox. Mr Watson was absent at the time of the fire and on returning, his first inquiry was, what was saved from the flames? He was informed that nothing had been saved except a few old boxes and barrels, which had been stowed away in a kind of lumber room. He replied cheerfully, that he did not mind the loss of the rest as he had $2,000 in money in one of the old barrels then lying in the street. We have not learned the amount of the loss sustained by Mr. Cox. The fire, it is supposed, originated by sparks from an adjoining chimney.—Centre Democrat.

☞ We see by a notice in the Hollidaysburg papers, that the citizens of Blair county, attached to the Peoples' Party, are requested to meet at the Court House, in that place, on Tuesday next at 8 o'clock P. M., to elect a representative delegate to the State Convention, which meets in Harrisburg, on the 8th of June.

The Poor House.

To E. MCGRAW, Steward of the Blair County Poor House—SIR:—In your reply, No. 2, to my inquiries concerning the affairs of the Poor House, you make a great mistake in attempting to have them considered as merely a personal attack upon you. I have not written one word to warrant such a conclusion, I have a higher motive in view, viz:—to know what has become of the public money? No desire on your part to divert the public mind from this object, will be gratified at this time. You may thus succeed with the Directors, but the people are, at last, desirous of looking a little beyond that point.

I regret to be compelled to say that your explanation of how you get 611 paupers, each costing the county 97½ cents per week, during 52 weeks in the year, is not satisfactory. I see plain enough how you get the figures 611, by adding the admitted, the dismissed, the eloped, the dead, &c., as one when they go in and one when they go out, making two of each one, and then counting for him 104 weeks instead of perhaps 8 or 10. Now Mr. MCGRAW, would it not be better for you at once to be candid and state the facts fully and fairly.

I now give the part of your Annual Report, which you say I did not understand. If you are serious in re-asserting that there were 611 different paupers with you during the year 1858, then indeed either you or I do not understand the report. Here it is:—

Monthly Report for 1858.

	Admitted,	Dismissed,	Eloped,	Births,	Deaths,	Men,	Women,	Children,	Total,
January,	6	5	0	1	0	27	14	19	60
February,	1	3	0	0	0	27	14	15	56
March,	7	0	0	1	1	29	16	17	62
April,	1	12	0	0	4	30	16	17	63
May,	2	13	0	0	2	29	13	9	51
June,	4	6	0	0	1	23	11	8	42
July,	8	5	0	0	2	19	14	11	44
August,	4	2	0	0	1	17	13	10	40
September,	5	6	4	0	1	19	13	10	42
October,	4	0	0	0	0	21	9	5	35
November,	14	0	0	0	1	29	14	8	51
December,	15	0	0	1	0	35	15	12	65
	72	52	4	2	13	305	165	141	611

You now say that there were 55 paupers in the Poor House, January 1st, 1858. Add to these the 72 you report as admitted during the year and it will make 127, instead of six hundred and eleven. Or, if you choose, add up the monthly reports honestly, and you have, according to your way of counting, 755. Was this total amount too large to publish, or have you made a mistake in not adding up a single monthly report correctly. How is it? The reader can add up for himself.

You charge for keeping 611, on figures which would make 755, but which, in fact, ought only to be 127, and in this way expect to prove that I am wrong in the conclusion that each pauper cost the county $4 05¾ per week. The people will not approve of such conduct.

But I must do you the justice to say that in your second reply you admit that you feed your family and the poor on the products of the farm, in addition to the 97½ cents drawn from the Treasury. Why did you not admit this in the first report?

Your attempt to have the exposition of your mismanagement considered a personal attack on you will not avail you anything. Better that you would invite the Tax Payers to employ some gentleman to call on you and the Directors to examine the whole matter.

I say the profits of the farm should keep the poor. Instead of that, J. Penn Jones, Treasurer, paid out, during the year, $3293 44
E. McGraw, 2d Treasurer do. 369 22

$3662 66

This is the amount of money that should and can be served annually to the county, by a proper management of the affairs of the Poor House.

☞ The Lewistown Gazette states that the receipts of that office during one week of court was $174,85 cents. Whew, but brother Frysinger must have felt big on Saturday evening. Suppose he enjoyed the sermon he listened to on the following day.

☞ The Centre Democrat says that the citizens of Bellefonte witnessed a novel sight a few days since by the arrival in their town of a team of five fine looking horses attached to a wagon, and seated upon each horse was a blooming, rosy-cheeked country girl. This feat exhibited a commendable spirit of rural independence.

☞ Friend Lewis, of the Huntingdon Globe, has seen an article called a bustle, for the ladies, which he says would make a better horse-rake or something else, and thinks they are very handy for ladies who have many children, when they go out walking, as they can set them on behind and thus be saved the trouble and inconvenience of leading them. Our opinion is that we should not like to be one of the children in that case, lest ma should put on her fixins in a hurry, and turn the teeth side up.

A Jealous Husband.

The following story, told by an exchange, fully illustrates the truth of the remark that "trifles light as air, are to the jealous confirmation strong as proofs of holy writ." A gentleman residing at Crestline, with a loving and beautiful wife, became exceedingly jealous of a Mansfield lawyer, who visited the house frequently, and who always sought a private interview with the lady. The husband quietly brooded over his wrongs for a time, and then actually proposed to a brakesman on the railroad that he should murder the lawyer for a stipulated sum. The brakesman accepted the proposition, but instead of executing his bloody trust, he told the lawyer all about the matter. The story goes as follows:—

One evening, as the husband was approaching his house, he beheld the lawyer leaving the house and on entering, saw his wife hurriedly shut a bureau drawer. In her absence, he examined the drawer. Imagine his surprise at discovering in it a quantity of gold coin which he supposed had purchased his wife's chastity. He was almost frantic, but said nothing, still hoping to hear of the lawyer's early decease, as per arrangement with the brakesman. On the next morning, the lawyer and the brakesman, by an understanding with the wife, who was "posted" in the whole affair, called at the house; the wife received them in her quiet and lady-like way; the husband treated them with great coldness and indifference, and began to regard the brakesman with suspicions of infidelity to his trust. The wife quietly went to the bureau, took therefrom the bag of gold, and turning to her husband, said:

"Here is $8,741 which my attorney has, after a great amount of labor, collected as my legacy, from the administrator of my uncle, whom you did not know, but who died in New Jersey, some eleven years ago. His kindly office, for which he has retained a reasonable fee, has affected you with jealousy. I hope this may teach you never to impute crimes to others, unless you have better evidence than mere suspicion of their guilt."

The breaksman then rose, and handed over a package saying:

"This is a price set upon the lawyer's head, but after an investigation, I concluded he didn't need killing, and I herewith return it to you, hoping you will become a wiser and better man."

The reader may imagine the effect produced upon the jealous husband by being simultaneously convinced of his wife's fidelity and possessed of $8,741 in gold.

SINGULAR DIVORCE CASE IN BUTLER COUNTY.—A divorce case of a very important and interesting character was tried, last week, before Judge Agnew, in the Butler county court. The plaintiff in the matter was Adolphus J. Rebstock, and he sought to be divorced from his wife, a young woman of about sixteen years of age, very beautiful, and a daughter of one of the most wealthy and respectable merchants of Butler. A Pittsburg paper furnishes the following history of the case:—

"The parties were married about two years ago, the wife then being only fourteen years of age. The libel charged her with adultery, with a man by the name of John Hall, a merchant, also of high standing, and the head of a large family; and upon this issue the case was tried by a jury. The evidence was very voluminous, some thirty witnesses being examined on the part of the libellant. Nothing direct, however, was proven, but many circumstances tending strongly to warrant criminality came to light in the course of the examination. The defence set up was that the offence, if any was committed, had been condoned. After an able charge from the Court of over an hour in length, the jury retired, and returned in about fifteen minutes with a verdict in favor of libellant. The most important point in the case is, however, yet undecided. Immediately after libellant had filed his petition, it appears respondent left the State and went to Huntingdon, Indiana, when she applied for a divorce on the ground of desertion and illtreatment; and, to the utter astonishment of libellant and his counsel, she appeared in Court, the day subsequent to the verdict, and filed a certified copy of the record of said Huntingdon Court, divorcing her from the bonds of matrimony, as a bar to the decree upon the verdict there. To this plea libellant's counsel has filed answer, and thus the matter will rest until the next sitting of Court, when the question as to the validity of the Indiana decree will come before his Honor."

THE DROWNING CASE AT CLARK'S FERRY.—We have correct information from Clark's Ferry relative to the distressing death of a little boy by drowning, at that place, on Thursday last. The name of the deceased was Baskins. The two boys were amusing themselves in a small boat along the shore above the dam. Finally the boat drifted out into the stream, and the current being strong rapidly floated towards the breast of the dam. The father of young Basking, who has charge of the steam ferry boat, seeing the perilous position of the children, put on a full head of steam and started to their rescue. The little bark, however, was too far in advance to be overtaken, and went over the dam, little Baskins, a child of eight years, holding up his hands and crying: "Papa! Papa! save me! save me!" The father, frantic with grief, would have jumped into the river, but was restrained by the men on the steamer, for he could not have saved the child, and would no doubt have been drowned also. In passing over the dam the boat upset throwing the little occupant a distance of about twenty feet. Two men, Daniel Miller and Calvin Umberger, went out in a boat below the dam, and with great difficulty and danger to themselves succeeded in securing Shade. Poor little Baskins, however, found a watery grave, and all efforts to recover his body have proved abortive. Any persons along the river finding the body, and giving information to the afflicted father, Wm. Baskins, will be liberally rewarded.—Har. Tel. 16th inst.

FOUR BROTHERS CONVICTED.—Last week in the Crawford (Indiana) Circuit Court, four brothers were convicted and sentenced to the Penitentiary for two years each, for horse stealing. One other brother, Thomas, who was also indicted, died some time ago in the jail at Leavenworth. Jonathan, another brother, was also indicted, but was not arrested. The father and still another son are under indictment in the Perry Circuit Court for the same offence—the father being now in jail at Rome awaiting his trial. The family, consisting of father and seven sons, have but few equals. They have resided for a long time in the upper part of Perry county, in a secluded spot, and have not been suspected of dishonest practices; but from their number and the maliciousness of their character, the citizens of that portion of the country were deterred from instituting legal inquiries.

STAMPEDE.—The miners in the Lake Superior copper region have become perfectly wild in consequence of the reported discoveries of gold at Pike's Peak. They are leaving the different mines daily in crowds, and fears are entertained that operations in these "diggens" will be stopped, for want of hands. The poor fellows who pursue the Pike's Peak "will o' the wisp," will wish themselves back to Lake Superior, before they get through, or we are much mistaken.

☞ A few days ago, a man by the name of Robbins, indicted for bigamy, was tried at Raleigh, N. C., and convicted. On the following day he was branded with the letter B on the right cheek, in open court—the brand leaving a mark that he will carry to his grave.

NEW AND FRESH BOOK.
New Work, by the REV. J. H. INGRAHAM.
JUST PUBLISHED:
THE PILLAR OF FIRE;
Or, ISRAEL IN BONDAGE.

By the author of "The Prince of the House of David," being an account of the wonderful scenes in the life of the Son of Pharoah's Daughter, (Moses,) from his youth to the assent of Sinai; comprising, as by an eye-witness, his miracles before Pharach, Passage of the Red Sea, and Reception of the Law on Mount Sinai. Containing an elaborate and richly colored Description of the Architecture of the Egyptians, their Manners and Customs in Peace and War, in the Temple, the Family, the Mart, and at the Tomb; and also of the Israelites, while in the Land of Bondage, together with Picturesque sketches of the Hebrews under their Task Masters, of scenes, Processions, and Spectacles upon and beside the Nile, and Legends of the Obelisks, Sphinxes and Pyramids, and of their Founders before the Flood. Delineations of Beautiful Women, Miriam, Amense, Luxora and Osiris, and of Wonderful Men, Aaron, Remeses (Moses,) and the Prince of Uz (Job), Narrated in a Series of Letters from a Syrian Prince traveling in Egypt to his Royal Mother, Queen of Tyre. The volume abounds in characteristic passages of highly wrought beauty, and Dramatic Incident.

To the 100,000 readers of "The Prince of the House of David," we need only say, that this book is by the same Author, and more wonderfully interesting and enchanting.

ALTOONA GAS AND WATER COMPANY.—On Tuesday evening of last week, the books of the above named company were opened at the Logan House, and on Monday last over $8,000 of the Capital Stock (the amount required to secure the charter) had been subscribed. While we are pleased to note that the stock is being taken so rapidly, we are nevertheless sorry to learn that the property holders in this place, those whom these improvements, when completed, will most benefit, manifest so little interest in the matter, and but few of their names are yet found upon the books. Why is this? Do they not all desire that these improvements should be made? Will it not enhance the value of every cents worth of real estate, and we might add, much personal property, in the town? Has it not been proven, and is it not admitted by all that the stock in the Company must and will pay? Do not our citizens with a few exceptions, belong to the "Progressive School?" Why then do they withhold their names from the books of the Company, and thus, in a measure, retard the accomplishment of this great enterprise? We have heard that some persons want the water but not the gas, therefore they will not subscribe because the two are connected together. Others would take gas stock, which would likely pay the best dividends, but care nothing about the water, hence they will not subscribe because they can not have a choice. This is all wrong. One improvement will benefit our town as much as the other and contribute equally to increase the value of real estate, which, after all, is a consideration of more importance to property holders than the dividends on the stock, unless they take a great number of shares. We hope that the spirit of enterprise will stimulate all to enter into this work at once and say what they will do. Those who look only to the benefits to be derived from the dividends which the stock will pay, are very short-sighted indeed. They do not consider that a good supply of water will be the means of inducing capitalists to start manufactories which must increase the value of property, bring people to our town, and revive business generally. And who are to be benefited by this increase? The answer is plain—owners of real estate, merchants and mechanics.

NOTICE.

The commissioners named in the act incorporating the "Altoona Gas and Water Company," will meet at the LOGAN HOUSE, on Monday, May 9th, 1859, at 2 o'clock, for the purpose of opening books to receive subscriptions to the Capital Stock of said Company. The books to continue open between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock for five successive days.

JOHN SHOEMAKER,
For the Commissioners.

CAN'T AFFORD IT.—We have frequently heard business men, (or rather those who think they are business men,) remark that they can not afford to advertise. On asking the reason why, they reply that their business don't pay. Short-sighted mortals, thought we. They could not see that by a judicious and continual system of advertising, their business would not only pay for advertising it, but increase it to such an extent as to make it pay them also. In this country, where every person reads the newspapers, a man must be considerably behind the times who does not see that these are the cheapest and best mediums through which he can speak to the public, where he is to find customers. A man reads an advertisement of a mechanic or merchant, and because he does not want anything in their line at present, he pays no more attention to it; but when he does require an article of the kind advertised, he knows where to go to get it. As a general thing, men who do not advertise, these latter days, are considered "Old Fogy's," who buy and sell on that principle, consequently "Young America" goes to "Young America's" store or shop for what he wants. Let men put on the appearance of business, and the reality will speedily follow. The farmer plants his seed, and while he is sleeping his corn and potatoes are growing. So with advertising. While you are sleeping, or eating, or conversing with one set of customers, your advertisement is being read by hundreds and thousand of persons who never saw you, nor heard of your business, and never would, had it not been for your advertisement in the newspapers.

ANOTHER LECTURE.—We are pleased to state that through the instrumentality of the Lecture Committee of the Mechanics Library rnd Reading Room Association, we are to be favored with a lecture from Gen. Will A. Stokes, of Westmoreland county, on the subject of "English Tourists in America," to be delivered this (Thursday) evening in the Lutheran Church—doors opening at 7 o'clock, lecture half an hour later. Single tickets 15 cents—or two tickets for 25 cents.—We deem it almost useless to say anything in commendation of the gentleman above named, as his abilities as a lecturer are well known to most of our citizens, and they will go to hear him without being urged to do so. The low price of tickets will enable all who wish to enjoy the rich intellectual feast which will be served up to the audience this evening. We sincerely hope that the church may be well filled, not only as a justly deserved compliment to the distinguished lecturer, but for the encouragement of the Lecture Committee of the Association. We think our citizens will soon feel the benefit and importance of this Association, and lend to it that assistance which it merits and justly claims at their hands.

LATEST TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.—Our old friend, C. J. Mann, is now in Philadelphia and New York, selecting his stock of Spring and Summer Goods, and from a dispatch received from him this morning, we are assured that he intends bringing home a stock of Goods, which for style, texture and finish, cannot be excelled this side of either Philadelphia or New York, and he tells us that he is determined to sell them cheaper than ever.

We would advise our friends to await his return. You will loose nothing by "waiting for the wagon."

SABBATH SCHOOL EXHIBITION.—We, (the Junior,) while on a visit to our former home, (New Bloomfield, Perry county, Pa.,) last week, enjoyed a treat in the "Exhibition" line the like of which we never enjoyed before—it was a treat as is a treat. On our arrival at "the old house at home," the almost first topic of gossip which greeted our ears was the exhibition to be given by the Methodist Sunday School, on Thursday and Friday evenings—and said topic being the topic everywhere we went, in our visits to old friends, we concluded that something extraordinary must be "up." When we arrived at the Court House, where the Exhibition was held, we found, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, a "full house" of spectators, anxiously, and almost impatiently awaiting the opening of the programme. It opened with—— but there is a great deal of risk to run to attempt to describe, and descant upon the merits (there were no *de*merits) of the performance—a Washington Irving might do it, but we—never. Suffice it to say that the large and intelligent audience were, (after two nights performances,) so pleased with it that they insisted upon a repetition on Saturday evening. The Declamations, the Dialogues, the vocal music—all, were done up in a style creditable to the performers and the School. The Exhibitors were assisted by the Brass Band, recently organized in the town, and their performances tended greatly to enliven the exercises of the evening. This Band, although new, and having enjoyed few advantages of improvement, we can say performed in a manner which would have done credit to many old and experienced Bands in the State. Success to it.

MACADAMIZING VIRGINA STREET.—We are pleased to note that the present Town Council have determined on improving Virginia street, which is the worst, although the principal street in the town, by macadamizing it, and that the Chief Burgess has issued a notice to contractors for proposals to do the work, which will be received up to the 3d of next month, May. This street has long been a disgrace to the town, and we are truly glad that this work, which should have been done years since, is to be done at this time. There are other streets in the town which require the same improvement, and will receive it in time, but we think it right that the principal thoroughfares should receive first attention, on the principle of the "greatest good to the greatest number." The rapid manner in which our town is spreading and improving renders it impossible for our "Borough Fathers" to pay that attention to all their progeny that wish to, from the fact that they have not the means.

"GIVE HIM FITS!"—Hyer gave Sullivan "fits" and Merrissey gave Heenan "fits" on the occasion of their matches for the championship of America. Morphy is now giving the big chess players of Europe "fits" in the way of chess playing. Phelan gave Seerieter "fits" in the match game of billiards for $5,000 a side, in Detroit last week. The Little Giant gave Billy Bigler "fits" on the Lecompton question on more than one occasion last winter, and many of the Democratic newspapers are now giving one another "fits" on the same subject, but none of these "fits" can compare with the "fits" our old neighbor, Tom Elway, gives to all his customers in the line of handsome, cheap and durable clothing. He has just received his Spring and Summer Stock, which he says is the largest ever yet brought to the town. Drop in and inspect.

THAT'S SO.—Somebody says the man who travels a thousand miles in a thousand hours, may be tolerably quick footed; but he is not a touch to the woman who keeps up with the fashions of the present day. Yes, and the woman who wants to keep up with the fashions must not forget to make her purchases at the "Model" Store, where the proprietors have just received a large supply of the most seasonable and fashionable goods that ever graced the shelves or counter outside of the cities. Quick footed men also make long journeys to purchase their supplies of groceries, hardware, &c., at the "Model" where everything in that line is to be found in abundance; fresh, and at living prices. Huzza for the "Model," it will soon be a household word. See advertisement of prices in another column.

☞ At a meeting of the A. M. L. & R. R. A., held in the Library Room on the evening of the 19th inst., the following resolutions were offered by Mr. Cannegie, and adopted unanimously:—

Resolved, That this Association fully appreciates the important services rendered by their distinguished fellow-member, Louis W. Hall, Esq., by the delivery of his late lecture upon Benjamin Franklin, under their auspices, and hereby return sincere thanks for his services upon that occasion.

Resolved, That to the officers and Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church, of Altoona, special acknowledgements are due and hereby tendered for their liberal action in placing their church at the disposal of the Association for the purpose of the lecture.

On motion, Resolved, That the above be published in the Altoona Tribune, and a copy be sent to each of the parties referred to.

B. F. CUSTER, Sec'y.

A COMMERCIAL COLLEGE OF THREE HUNDRED AND FIFTY-SEVEN STUDENTS.—Prominent among the reasons why the Iron City College has four times as many students as any other Commercial School in the United States, are the following: it is the only College in Pittsburg that gives three daily lectures on Book-Keeping; three daily recitations and an examination in Commercial Calculations; the only one which requires weekly exercises in Composition and Commercial Correspondence of all its students; the only one which employs teachers whose qualifications are recognized by literary men, or are experienced educators, and the only one that grants Diplomas to those only of its students who are competent and skillful accountants.—Pittsburgh True Press.

☞ Our young friend, Geo. M. Smith, who keeps the confectionary a few doors above the Post Office, has now on hand as fine a stock of confectionaries, nuts, cakes, fruit, &c., as can be found in the town, and he is withal about as clever a young man to deal with as stands behind a counter. Let those who wish anything in his line give him a call.

ODD FELLOWS CELEBRATION.—Tuesday, the 26th day of April, 1859, was the fortieth anniversary of the organization of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, in the United States—and a majority of the active Lodges in the Union celebrated the day in a becoming manner. Altoona and Verandah Lodges spent the Holiday by parading our streets, and listening to an appropriate lecture by their Brother, Rev. Mr. Platt, of Johnstown. The day being April-ish in the extreme, neither Lodge was enabled to display the full extent of its membership; but as it was the procession was large, and made a very creditable appearance. The lecture was a very interesting one, and done credit to the Lecturer. The Altoona Brass Band escorted the Brotherhood through the principal streets of the town, and exhibited a marked improvement in their performances, since our citizens last heard them. On the whole, the affair was quite creditable to the order, and enlivening to the town.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.—The New York Hearld has undertaken the business of disparaging and falsifying most grossly the condition of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad, to promote the interests of the New York Central. It has even gone down to the meanness of playing Searle for the New York road, and representing its rival as disagreeable and unsafe to travel on. The Cincinnati Commercial of Saturday notices and contradicts its statement, as follows:—

"The perfect order and smoothness of the track of the Pennsylvania Central Road is proverbial. It is a fact, verified almost every day, that a glass three-fourths filled with water, will ride on the window sill of any passenger car upon the road, from Altoona to Harrisburg, without being spilled one time in ten. We have ourselves seen apples placed in a similar position, upon a wager, and ride one hundred and fifty miles on the Pennsylvania Central, without being jarred off. We call attention to the everywhere admitted splendid condition of the Penn'a Central, on account of a foolish misrepresentation contained in the last sentence of a paragraph from the New York Herald of Thursday."

SLIGHTLY FOOLED.—Rambling up street a few evenings since, we dropped into one of our usual stopping places, but judge of our surprise when we found we were in a large room, neatly repaired, painted and fitted up, looking more like some "banquet hall deserted," than the place of business we expected to find. A little inquiry, however, brought to our knowledge the fact that it was the same old place, Joe Hileman's store room, which had undergone a thorough renovation and extension, preparatory to receiving the large supply of goods which he purchased this Spring and is now opening, embracing as large a variety, as good an assortment, and as low in price as those of any Dry Goods merchant in the town. Call and see the Joes now that they have room to spread themselves.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.—Persons of consumptive tendency have need to be very careful in the outset of a cough, and betake themselves in time, to a proper remedy. A cough is always evidence of irritation in the throat and lungs, resulting from some obstruction in the skin. In order to prevent these attacks, wear flannel next the skin, guard the feet from damp and wet, and above all take DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL COUGH SYRUP upon the first approach of a cough or sore throat, and check the disease thereby in its infancy. There is nothing like attacking disease on its first approach. By due attention to this advice you will save much suffering and sometimes prolong life. Even when consumption has become seated, this medicine will mitigate the suffering and has cured some very bad cases.—Sold by G. W. Kessler, Altoona, Pa.

CORRECTION.—We were slightly in error in some of the figures given in our previous account of the fast run made by Col. Weltzel and his engineer Michael Cook, a short time since, between this place and Harrisburg, and we now publish the time correct:—

		h.	m.
Running time including 28 stops, 132 miles		4	07
Allow, say 3 minutes to the stop		1	28
Running time		2	39
Per hour, including stops		32	miles.
" deducting stops		49¾	"

Made up, per hour, 13½ miles.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Friday last a man named Evan Mowry, was killed by the falling in of a collier's cabin near Claysburg in this county. He and two others engaged in coaling at the place, repaired to the cabin for dinner, and whilst it was preparing the structure, which had a heavy covering of earth upon it, gave way and came down upon them with crushing weight, killing Mr. Mowry instantly, and very seriously hurting the other two. Justice Shock held an inquest, which rendered a verdict in accordance with the above facts.—Register.

MAGNUM EST VECTIGAL PARSIMONIA.—The truth of this motto no one can doubt. Wherein we save money in our purchases, we mean those we really need, we must, as a matter of course, add to our income, and in order to do this in the way of buying clothing, we refer our readers to an advertisement bearing the motto of this article, in another column. Mr. O'Donnell will take pleasure in showing his goods and make good the motto.

SHAD OH!—Our young friend, Kimball, proprietor of the Peoples' Shoe Store, over the way, will please accept our thanks for the monster fish of the Shad species which he left in our sanctum the other morning. It was the finest specimen of that excellent fish we have ever seen in this place. Business men who remember the printer will always be remembered by the public when they wish anything in their line.

THE HALL OF FASHION is still open, and the Proprietor, in returning thanks to his numerous customers for their liberal patronage bestowed on him since his commencement, here desires to say (without fear of contradiction) that he is prepared to offer for their inspection the best assortment of handsome DRESS GOODS, SHAWLS, CLOAKS, WHITE GOODS, &c., &c., that can be found in Altoona.

Respectfully, &c., C. J. MANN.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor.

In all diseases inflammation more or less predominates—now to allay inflammation strikes at the root of disease—hence an immediate cure.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR, and nothing else, will allay inflammation at once, and make a certain cure.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR will cure the following among a great catalogue of diseases: Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Chafes, Sore Nipples, Corns, Bunions, Bruises, Sprains, Bites, Poison, Chilblains, Biles, Scrofula, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Felons, Ear Ache, Piles, Sore Eyes, Gout, Swellings, Rheumatism, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Baldness, Erysipelas, Ringworm, Barbers' Itch, Small Pox, Measles, Rash, &c., &c.

To some it may appear incredulous that so many diseases should be reached by one article; such an idea will vanish when reflection points to the fact, that the salve is a combination of ingredients, each and every one applying a perfect antidote to its apposite disorder.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR

In its effects is magical, because the time is so short between disease and a permanent cure; and it is an extractor, as it draws all disease out of the affected part, leaving nature as perfect as before the injury. It is scarcely necessary to say that no house, work-shop, or manufactory should be one moment without it.

No Pain Extractor is genuine unless the box has upon it a steel plate engraving, with the name of Henry Dalley, Manufacturer.

Sold by G. W. Kessler, Altoona; George A. Jacobs, Hollidaysburg; and by all the Druggists and patent medicine dealers throughout the United States and Canadas.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY.

SIR JAMES CLARKE'S
CELEBRATED FEMALE PILLS.

Prepared from a prescription of Sir J. Clarke, M. D., Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

This invaluable medicine is unfailing in the cure of all those painful and delicate diseases to which the female constitution is subject. It moderates all excess and removes all obstructions, and a speedy cure may be relied on.

TO MARRIED LADIES

It is peculiarly suited. It will, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.

Each bottle, price one dollar, bears the Government Stamp of Great Britain, to prevent counterfeits.

CAUTION.

These Pills should not be taken by females during the first three months of Pregnancy, as they are sure to bring on Miscarriage, but at any other time they are safe.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics and Whites, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and although a powerful remedy, do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or anything hurtful to the constitution.

Full directions in the pamphlet around each package, which should be carefully preserved.

HOWARD ASSOCIATION, PHILADELPHIA.

A Benevolent Institution, established by special endowment for the relief of the sick and distressed, afflicted with Virulent and Epidemic diseases.

The HOWARD ASSOCIATION, in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by Sexual Diseases, and the deceptions practised upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by Quacks, several years ago directed their Consulting Surgeon, as a charitable act worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases, in all their forms, and to give medical advice gratis, to all who apply by letter, with a description of their condition, (age, occupation, habits of life, &c.,) and in cases of extreme poverty and suffering, to furnish medicine free of charge. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment.

The directors of the Association, in their Annual Report upon the treatment of Sexual Diseases, express the highest satisfaction with the success which has attended the labors of the Consulting Surgeon in the cure of Spermatorrhœa, Seminal Weakness, Impotence, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Syphilis, the vice of Onanism or Self-abuse, &c., and order a continuance of the same plan for the ensuing year.

The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal, to this very important and much despised cause.

An admirable Report on Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, the vice of Onanism, Masturbation, or Self-abuse, and other abuses of the sexual organs, by the Consulting Surgeon, will be sent by mail (in a sealed envelope), FREE OF CHARGE, on receipt of TWO STAMPS for postage. Other Reports and Tracts on the nature and treatment of sexual diseases, &c., are constantly being published for gratuitous distribution, and will be sent to the afflicted. Some of the new remedies and methods of treatment discovered during the last year, are of great value.

NEW GROCERY FEED AND PROVISION STORE.

The subscriber would respectfully inform the citizens of Altoona and vicinity that he has opened a store of the above kind, near the corner of Adaline and Julia streets, East Altoona, where he will keep constantly on hand a full supply of everything in his line. His

GROCERIES

are all fresh and will be sold at prices as low as those of any other establishment in town. His stock of provisions, consisting of Flour, Hams, Shoulders, Sides, &c.

will be sold a little cheaper than they can be bought any where else. His Flour is obtained from the best mills in the Western part of the State, and is warranted to be what it is represented.

All kinds of Feed for horses, cows and hogs, always on hand.

I intend to keep such an assortment that I shall at all times be able to supply my customers with whatever they may need, and I intend also to sell at prices which will make it a saving to those who patronize my store.

July 22, 1858-3m. HENRY BELL.

YOUTH AND MANHOOD.—JUST Published, the 25th Thousand, and mailed in a sealed envelope, to any address, post paid, on receipt of three stamps.

A medical essay on the physical exhaustion and decay of the frame, caused by "self-abuse," infection, and the injurious consequences of mercury. By R. J. Culverwell, M. D., Member of the royal college of surgeons, &c.

☞ Spermatorrhœa or Seminal Emissions, Genital and Nervous Debility, Impotency, Loss of Energy, Depression of Spirits, Timidity, Diseases of the Sexual Organs, and Impediments to Marriage, are promptly and effectually removed by the authors' novel and most successful mode of treatment, by means of which the invalid can regain pristine health without having recourse to dangerous and expensive medicines.

(From the London Lancet.)

The best treatise ever written on a subject of vital importance to all, well worthy the author's exalted reputation.

Address, the Publishers J. C. KLINE & CO., 1st Avenue, Cor. 10th street: Post Box 4586, New York City.

DUVALL'S GALVANIC OIL.

Prepared originally by Prof. H. DU VALL, formerly of the College of Surgeons, at Paris, is now offered to the public, ☞ for the cure of sore and painful diseases. ☜

For instance—Pain or soreness in any part of the system, Rheumatism, pain in the back, breast or side, bealed breasts, neuralgia, burns, sprains, headache, cramp in the stomach, or any other disease that is SORE and PAINFUL, and it is only over this class of diseases that we claim a perfect VICTORY. We say positively to our patrons we can relieve the sufferer 99 times out of 100. We would just say to the public, Prof. Du Vall was 25 years in bringing to this medicine superiority over all others.

Price 50 cents per bottle—⅓ per cent. cut off to the trade. All orders must be addressed to

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT. For Inflammatory Diseases only.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT, instead of being a remedy for all ills, has but one aim, and accomplishes but one thing, to wit: Subdues inflammatory disease, whatever be its form or locality. This it does by equalising the circulation, thereby removing the sole cause of inflamation.

RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, Headache, Fits, Colds, Fevers, Inflamed Throat, Lungs, and Liver, Female Diseases Erysipelas, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Asthma, Dyspepsia, Venereal Diseases, Gout, Scrofula, Canker and all other forms of Inflamation are easily subdued by the New Medical Salt.

THE NEW MEDICAL SALT, is no CURE-ALL, but does just what it claims to do—no more, no less—equalizes the circulation by removing from the system all arterial and venous obstructions.

MULTITUDES HAVE TRIED the virtues of the New Medical Salt, though but lately discovered and introduced. Witness the testimonials and certificates of cure.

ALL WHO HAVE USED IT acknowledge a benefit from it.—An acquaintance of ours was cured of a severe case of Neuralgia in less than a week.

YOUR INVALUABLE MEDICINE is nobly fulfilling, in my case, all the promises which you made for it. A few doses also relieved my mother of a rush of blood to the head.
J. P. GILLINGHAM, Phila.

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM was my complaint. The first package did the work effectually, as not a vestige of Rheumatism is left. G. H. DUNCAN, New York.

I KNOW IT IS GOOD for Rheumatism, removing it in a few hours. I am now trying it for Scrofula and have already received benefit. S. LESSIG, Reading.

I TRIED IT FOR ANEURISM of the Abdominal Aorta. In ten days the pain was gone.
T. W. FITZIMONS, M. D., Phila.

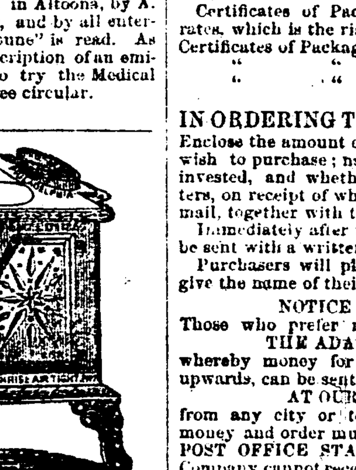

WE SPEAK BY THE BOOK. We have tried it. It has complete control over inflamation.

BRONCHITIS, CANKER, Rheumatism, and Neuralgia have been cured by it.

MANY MORE WOULD TESTIFY, if necessary. Descriptive Circulars, with testimonials may be obtained from any Druggists who has this valuable medicine for sale.

DR. COGGSWELL'S Antiphlogistic salt. Price, One Dollar. Chronic Package, $2.50.
D. C. TAYLOR, & CO.,
Gen. Agents, 202 Dock St. Phila.

THE NEW MEDICAL SALT IS FOR SALE in Altoona, by A. Roush; Geo. A. Jacobs, Hollidaysburg, and by all enterprising druggists whereever the "Tribune" is read. As it is not a patent medicine, but the prescription of an eminent physician, no one should fail to try the Medical Salt. For testimonials and directions, see circular.

GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN COOKING STOVES. CONSUMPTION OF SMOKE AND GAS AND SAVING OF FUEL.

The subscriber takes pleasure in offering to the public a NEW GAS AND SMOKE CONSUMING Cooking Stove, recently patented, which is destined to supercede all others, as it requires than other stoves and is more easily, quickly and regularly heated. No unpleasant smell of gas arises from this stove from the fact that it is all consumed ere it can escape. There is no trouble from smoke as that unpleasant and often annoying exhalation is also consumed inside of the stove. Neither is there any danger of flues or chimneys becoming clogged with soot or the mortar loosened by the gas arising from coal fires.

ONE-THIRD LESS FUEL

Persons wishing to purchase stoves are invited to call at the store of the subscriber, in the Masonic Temple, and examine the above stoves. JOHN SHOEMAKER.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR!
PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,
COMPOUNDED ENTIRELY FROM GUMS,

Is one of the best Purgative and Liver Medicines now before the public, that acts as a Cathartic, easier, milder and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject its morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels to carry off that matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experienced in the operations of most Cathartics. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it; and when taken daily in moderate doses, will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity.

SANFORD'S LIVER INVIGORATOR.

The LIVER is one of the principal regulators of the human body; and when it performs its functions well, the powers of the system are fully developed. The stomach is almost entirely dependent on the healthy action of the Liver for the proper performance of its functions; when the stomach is at fault, the bowels are at fault, and the whole system suffers in consequence of one organ—the LIVER—having ceased to do its duty. For the diseases of that organ, one of the proprietors has made it his study, in a practice of more than twenty years, to find some remedy wherewith to counteract the many derangements to which it is liable.

To prove that this remedy is at last found, any person troubled with LIVER COMPLAINT, in any of its forms, has but to try a bottle, and conviction is certain.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well. PURIFYING THE BLOOD, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

BILIOUS ATTACKS are cured, AND, WHAT IS BETTER, PREVENTED, by the occasional use of the LIVER INVIGORATOR.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents Nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures Costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

☞ One dose of two teaspoonsful will always relieve SICK HEADACHE.

One bottle taken for female obstruction removes the cause of the disease, and makes a perfect cure.

Only one dose immediately relieves Cholic, while

One dose often repeated is a sure cure for CHOLERA MORBUS, and a preventive of CHOLERA.

☞ Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

☞ One bottle taken for JAUNDICE removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite, and makes the food digest well.

One dose often repeated cures Chronic Diarrhœa in its worst forms, while Summer and Bowel complaints yield almost to the first dose.

One or two doses cures attacks caused by WORMS in children: there is no surer, safer, or speedier remedy in the world, as it never fails.

A few bottles cures Dropsy by exciting the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending the medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Bilious type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

☞ Mix Water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR

IS A SCIENTIFIC MEDICAL DISCOVERY, and is daily working cures, almost too great to believe. It cures as if by magic, even the first dose giving benefit, and seldom more than one bottle is required to cure any kind of Liver Complaint, from the worst Jaundice or Dyspepsia to a common Headache, all of which are the result of a DISEASED LIVER.

PRICE ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

ON MANHOOD, AND ITS PREMATURE DECLINE.—Just Published, Gratis, the 20th Thousand:

A FEW WORDS ON THE RATIONAL TREATMENT, without Medicine, of Spermatorrhea or Local Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, Genital and Nervous Dibility, Impotency, and Impediments to Marriage generally, by
B. DE LANEY, M. D.

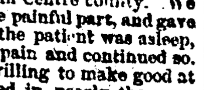

The important fact that the many alarming complaints, originating in the imprudence and solitude of youth, may be easily removed WITHOUT MEDICINE, is in this small tract, clearly demonstrated; and the entirely new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to cure HIMSELF perfectly and at the least possible cost, thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day.

Sent to any address, gratis and post free in a sealed envelope, by remitting (post paid) two postage stamps to Dr. B. DE LANEY, 38 East 31st street, New York City.

SUFFERING HUMANITY, READ THIS.—The undersigned takes this method of informing the public generally that there is no medicine now offered to the public that is equal to DU VALL'S GALVANIC OIL in relieving suffering humanity.

I was an observer of its effects on a friend of mine, who suffered almost everything from a neuralgic affection which resisted the best medical treatment in Centre county. We applied freely the Galvanic Oil to the painful part, and gave some inwardly, and in 20 minutes the patient was asleep, and when awakened was free from pain and continued so. This is a positive fact which I am willing to make good at any time. A case of Felon was cured in nearly the same length of time. J. H. HAHN,
